

SUSTAINABLE STAYS

It should come as little surprise that the Emerald Isle has some stunning green options when it comes to staycations. Take a look at some more sustainable stays around the country.

Compiled by: Saoirse Hanley

WREN ECO HOTEL, CO DUBLIN

Nestled in the centre of Dublin city, Wren is a sustainable urban escape that has recently opened its doors. The hotel uses renewable sources of energy and recycled or biodegradable materials. They keep it local with craft products throughout the hotel, which have been sourced from Irish makers. There's even free filtered water on every floor.

Stay in Wren's Snug Nest for one from €99, or the Cozy Nest for two from €109. See wrenhotel.ie

